NARRATIVE

Special Study

45 year old Male in police custody. He saw police on the street and took off running several blocks until caught, he then fought with police, was cuffed and hobbled and then became extremely quiet. Police thought he may have passed out, he came to quickly. Police are requesting that we check for any life threatening vital signs before they take him to jail.

Pt is lying quietly on sidewalk, r 18 -20, opens eye but isn't talking to us. VS within normal limits. Attempted blood glucose and pt began fighting and yelling, he was held for the test which was normal. Police refusing transport for pt in their custody. Advised VS were normal but pt was probably on some sort of drug. Police acknowledged this and signed refusal.
