Hi Jana,

Thank you for checking with me. I honestly was taking some time to consider what it means for an individual to question the conclusions of such large systems that I may personally rely on. I was considering if it is in my best interest to do so.

As I said, it was very even scary and overwhelming just to apply as an individual to be an "affected party."

I myself have encountered retaliation for questioning care at psychiatric units at hospitals and public mental health agencies. I also just heard of a story of a person who questioned the care by the State and terrible things happened to her.

Because I know so many people personally in the State, hospital systems and agencies who have been involved in this, I trust that they will ensure that anything I may say will not affect my possible mental health care in the future.

And it is in the best interest of those people with mental health issues and their families/allies to bring some points for all to consider examining.

Yes, I am amenable to extending the time for holding the informal hearing to no later than March 31, 2017. I would like to request that this hearing will not be held on any Wednesday afternoons.

Thank you for your continued assistance in this case,

Ann

Hi Ann,

Hadn't heard back from you yet so this is just to check in to see where you are with this.

Thanks,

Jana

Hi Ann –

It was nice talking with you yesterday afternoon. Thank you.

As we discussed, this email confirms our conversation yesterday. Via email on Friday, February 24, 2017, you requested an informal hearing. You are an affected party to the application. We talked about the administrative rule that governs the request for an informal hearing and the timing of the hearing. While you have a right to have the informal hearing held no later than March 13, 2017, you are amenable to extending the time for holding the informal hearing to no later than March 31, 2017. This will allow for more flexibility for scheduling in order to facilitate participation by other affected parties and the applicant.

Please reply to this email and let me know if you agree to this extension of time.

Best Regards,

Jana

Hi Jana,

As a party with affected-party status, I'd like to call for an informal hearing concerning the decision for #675. How do I do that?

Thanks!

Hi Ann,

Received your voice message but it must have been poor reception because I couldn't tell much beyond that it was you. Do you have a question or concern?

Please let me know.
