

Telephone call by Joan Rice to [REDACTED] 1:35 PM

[REDACTED]
Per Mrs. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] history as well as criminal history due to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] being served by [REDACTED] Mother is legal guardian. [REDACTED]

Mrs [REDACTED] reports [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
Lived in Pearl in Oregon City and [REDACTED] evicted him o live on street because [REDACTED] assumed he was using drugs t Was homeless for two weeks; living outside Hilltop Church. Would not eat dur to [REDACTED] and lost 40 lbs. Mother got [REDACTED] to get him off the street. While there, [REDACTED] put a pizza in the oven and left. Police took him to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Mom said she would not allow [REDACTED] Mom said that during the conversation with [REDACTED] referred to current situation with the following statement "I have 80patients that are "Rocks in Beds" People were on the floor and on sofas. Eight ambulances arriving daily and there was no place for the arriving people.

[REDACTED] states [REDACTED] social workers told her 80 adult inpatient beds were full and 38 people were in the ER. ([REDACTED] used to work for Portland Adventist inpatient psych.) Started [REDACTED] Stayed in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] States [REDACTED]
was well cared for when he was [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Still at [REDACTED] Currently working with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to try and find placement after [REDACTED]

When asked what would resolve her concerns Mrs. [REDACTED] replied that she did not feel she need to meet with Mayor Wheeler; but appreciated an opportunity to vent. She asked not to consider her concern regarding the conversation with [REDACTED] as a formal complaint; she understood that [REDACTED] was overwhelmed with patients. She was concerned that the first response was immediate discharge when [REDACTED] and would return to street with [REDACTED]

██████████ is concerned that with opening of Unity there is now an overwhelmed PES, inpatient psychiatry bed shortage in Portland as well as no housing options for hard to place individuals stepping down into community.

Joan Rice contacted Mayor Wheeler's Scheduler, Lisa Taylor with update that Mrs. ██████████ no longer wanted a meeting with Mayor. 7/5/17 2:30PM.

Will set up meeting with Neal Rotman to discuss. (Mrs. ██████████ reported dates don't match actual PES dates but count of individuals in PES appear close to numbers reported by Chris Farentinos).