OK, let's try this:

It has been my privilege to serve as best I could in filling the seat of Chair of the Executive committee for COAB and as a member of the DSUFCS subcommittee. COAB itself has much to be proud of... a new and agreed PPB policy on Mental Health and a redlined policy on Use of Force, all of which our members have worked on so hard along with the community. I believe in the work of the COAB, the importance and uniqueness of its relationship to a one-of-a-kind and enforceable Settlement Agreement, and believe COAB can still attain its mandate in giving those of us with mental health conditions voice in building solutions the truly work for us, as well as providing PPB better ways to achieve community engagement.

That said, I am stepping down from my role as Chair of the Executive Committee and appointee to the COAB effective immediately. Based on current circumstances, I will not engage publicly or speak regarding COAB to the media or any other party and leave any such to you.

Thanks, Bud
